

We have a fantastic opportunity for a Production Process Operative to join the team at R&W Scott on a full-time basis the hours of work are on a shift rotation of one-week early shift and the second week backshift (37 hrs per week).

The successful candidates will be responsible for a range of task associated with the preparation, processing, and packing of our products.

Key Accountabilities:

- To maintain a high level of housekeeping, taking account of safe working practices
- To report any potential problems to the Team Leader or Production Manager
- Communicate effectively regarding raw material, equipment and production schedule status
- Participate in training and development activities as required
- Participate fully in improvement schemes, project work and process changes
- Actively promote and comply with all company policies and procedures
- Any other reasonable duties as requested by the management team

Personal Qualities, Experience and Qualifications:

- Experience operating production processes
- Experience using SCADA or other operator control systems
- Has a 'can do – will do' attitude
- Excellent time management and communication skills
- Total customer focus – delivers beyond expectations
- Ability to work well as part of a team is essential